House Cleaning Time

the back-breaking time for the clean housewife, is made easier by the use of

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS PAINTS

Paint saves half the labor of house cleaning. Painted wood-work is easier to clean than unpainted wood-work. It doesn't collect as much dirt, and what dirt it does collect comes off easier. Paint this year and you'll have less work next year.

The Sherwin-Williams Family Paint in small cans meets the hundred and one demands for a little paint about the house. Dries quickly. The girls can apply it. Can be scrubbed. Color cards for the asking.

Capt. A. B. Fitch writes the editor that he and family will leave Oakland on the 26th inst. to make their home in Hollywood, a suburb of Los Angeles. One citizen of this beautiful suburb says that "there is only one better place than Hollywood, but one would have to die to get there." The Chieftain ventures to express the wish that Captain Fitch and family may be content with Hollywood and not seek the "only one better place" for many years to come.

C. T. Brown, the Socorro mining expert and engineer, who spent Saturday and Sunday in this city partly on mining business and partly on Masonic affairs, left last night for Tres Hermanos mining district in Luna county, where he went to examine zinc properties. He will be in southern Luna county for several days on that mission. — New Mexican.

D. F. Riddell, mining engineer and assayer, connected with the School of Mines at Socorro and who spent Saturday in this city, left yesterday for Chicago, where he will remain for some time taking a course in the department of manufacturing mining machinery at the Chalmers machine works. — New Mexican.

Conrado A. Baca says that his father, José Baca of Frisco, was unfortunate enough to have his pocket picked while at the fair this week but he was at the same time fortunate enough to have but little money in his pocket when the act was committed. Mr. Baca's principal loss was that of his return railroad ticket.

Miss Rose Ivy, a mistress of the art of song and a marvelous human dynamo, will appear at the Garcia opera house Monday and Tuesday evenings, Sept. 25 and 26. This is the first of a series of entertainments for the season and a generous patronage is hoped for.

Lieutenant Cipriano Baca of the territorial mounted police force arrived at his Socorro home this morning from an absence of three months on official duty in the northern counties of the Territory. Lieutenant Baca did excellent service in his absence.

Invitations are out for the faithful to attend the ceremonial session of Ballut Ahyad Temple, Ancient and Accepted Order of Nobles of the Mystic Shrine at Albuquerque, New Mexico, on Saturday evening, October 14, 1905.

THE SCHOOL OF MINES

All Classes Are Now Organized and Work for the Year Is Well Under Way.

PUBLICATIONS BY THE FACULTY.

Old Students Returning and New Students Arriving Give Promise of a Successful Year.

All classes at the School of Mines are now organized and work is well under way. The number of former students who have returned and of the new students who are arriving gives promise of a successful year. The following are among the week's items of interest:

Professor Smith took the surveying class into the field for the first time last week.

W. H. Bliss from Sherman, Texas, has matriculated in the regular mining course.

Prof. Robert B. Brinsmade arrived Monday from St. Louis and the east, where he had been spending the summer. The regular meeting of the faculty was held Wednesday. Organization for the year was made and Professor E. A. Drake was chosen secretary.

Former Professor Atkinson, recently elected to the chair of mathematics in Soule College, Tennessee, has entered upon active duties at that place.

Prof. Noble has recently published an interesting contribution to the knowledge of the isotherms in the Journal of the Deutschen Chemischen Gesellschaft, published in Berlin.

Mr. Max Kirchman of Chicago was a visitor at the School Wednesday. He expects to have his son matriculate for mining work as soon as he can have him arrive from the east.

Harry Lewis Peck enrolled for regular mining work. He comes from the Cananea copper camp of Mexico, where he had been engaged for some time with the Green Consolidated interests.

W. F. Murray of Raton returned this week to take up his duties for the year. Willie distinguished himself greatly during the summer while engaged upon surveying in the Raton mountains.

President Keyes has an interesting article in the current issue of the American Geologist on the character and age of the crystalline complex underlying the sedimentary rocks of New Mexico and which carry important ore deposits.

Samuel Cockerell is back for work. He has spent the summer on the engineering corps of the Santa Fe railway on the Belen cut-off division. Several of the School men who also held positions along the same line are yet to hear from.

The recently acquired library of mining, metallurgical and geological works belonging to the late Major Powell, for 15 years director of the United States Geological survey, is being rapidly put in shape for reference. The library is especially rich in volumes relating to the southwest.

WHITNEY COMPANY.

One of Albuquerque's Leading Business Houses Rapidly Gaining in Strength and Popularity.

One of the chief features of Sunday's metropolitan edition of the Albuquerque Morning Journal was the full page advertisement of the Whitney Company, wholesale and retail dealers in hardware. The advertisement was artistic and attractive in the extreme, but did no more than justice to the company's very artistically arranged sample room represented by a half-tone cut in the middle of the page. The Whitney Company is one of the largest and most substantial business firms in Albuquerque and by virtue of fair dealing it is rapidly growing in popularity and strength. The house makes specialties of sanitary plumbing, iron pipe and fittings, and mill and mining supplies. It has a trade in these and other lines of hardware that is by no means confined to New Mexico.

JOINT STATEHOOD FROST.

Scarcely a Baker's Dozen Assembled at the Casino at Albuquerque Wednesday.

The Santa Fe New Mexican's weather man has undertaken to account for the recent cool nights over New Mexico in a rather singular fashion. According to the deduction of the learned meteorologist referred to, the Bernalillo County Non-Partisan Joint Statehood League held a meeting Wednesday at the Albuquerque Casino, the attendance was so much smaller than was expected that the temperature of that place provided for public amusement immediately dropped to freezing, this low temperature communicated itself to the circumbient atmosphere, and there you have it. Here are the words of the New Mexican:

"Passengers who returned this noon from Albuquerque report that the joint statehood meeting at the Casino, in the Duke City, yesterday, was a frost. Although the city was crowded with visitors, yet scarcely a dozen people were at the meeting, while thousands went to see the baseball game and other attractions. The few alleged leaders, who had gone to the place of meeting, felt it advisable to adjourn until Friday morning, when other attractions would be out of the way. In the meanwhile, they will endeavor to drum up a little enthusiasm, at least among the people of Albuquerque, but as a matter of fact, there is an absolute lack of enthusiasm and the joint statehood movement is dead, as far as New Mexico and Arizona are concerned."

JEALOUSY CAUSE OF MURDER.

Aleman, Sierra County, the Scene of Shooting of H. B. Green by A. Litton Friday Evening.

Friday evening of last week about 5 o'clock A. Litton shot and killed H. B. Green at Aleman, a station on the Santa Fe, sixty miles south of Socorro. The full particulars cannot be learned, but the supposition is that Litton was intoxicated and angry with Green because the latter had been placed in charge of the G. W. Linger ranch, a day or two previous, which place Litton had held until this time.

Litton is regarded as a bad character, and this is not his first offense. He succeeded in making his get-away for the present, but officers are on his track, and he will undoubtedly be apprehended.

Mrs. Green, the wife of the deceased, arrived Saturday from Roswell, and took charge of her husband's body, which will be shipped to Roswell for interment.

TERRITORIAL MOUNTED POLICE APPEAR IN PARADE

One of the interesting features of the parade tomorrow will be the territorial mounted police in battle array, says the Albuquerque Citizen. The entire department, including Captain John F. Fullerton, Lieutenant Baca, Sergeant Lewis and Privates Myers, McGrath, Dudley, Huber, Avent, Perea, Putnam and Brophy, will appear mounted and with full equipment, including guns and cartridge belts. Some of these men have already smelled the smoke of battle and some of them have been called upon to spill blood in fulfilling their duties as guardians of the peace, although they have been in commission less than a year, and their appearance tomorrow will afford the fair visitors an opportunity of judging for themselves whether this new branch of the law is formidable or not. The verdict will most likely be in the affirmative. The last of the rangers to reach the city arrived this morning from the south.

THOSE COUNTY OFFICES

The Bernalillo County Squabble Now in the Hands of Judge Abbott for Final Decision

BETWEEN DEVIL AND DEEP SEA

Frank Hubbell Afraid to Refuse to Pay Warrants and Taxpayers Wont Pay Taxes.

The case recently brought in the district court by the recently removed officials of Bernalillo county has been argued and is now in the hands of Judge Abbott for final decision. Everybody who knows Judge Abbott personally or by reputation feels absolute assurance that the case will be decided on its merits. In this instance the feeling is very different from that which prevailed when less than a thousand years ago a certain election contest case was taken into the district court for Bernalillo county. But that is neither here nor there. The fact of interest just now is that the question whether the governor of New Mexico has the right to remove a county officer for cause or not is soon to be decided, and decided right. Another fact, very ludicrous and of mere passing interest, is that Frank Hubbell, ex-treasurer of Bernalillo county, is meantime very much between the devil and the deep sea. The Santa Fe New Mexican sums up the situation in these words:

"Frank A. Hubbell, who claims to be treasurer and ex-officio collector of Bernalillo county, although removed from office by Governor Otero, is between the devil and the deep sea. The county authorities are drawing warrants upon and are thus getting possession of the funds in his hands, for if he refuses to pay these warrants he virtually admits that he is no longer the treasurer. In that case, also, according to the statute, he makes himself subject to removal for refusing to honor legally drawn warrants. At the same time, no taxes are being received, as taxpayers will not pay until they are certain that they are paying to the legal collector."

"In the contest over the sheriff's office, Judge Ira A. Abbott announced yesterday that he has taken the case under advisement and as numerous authorities have been quoted by counsel, it will take him some time to look these up before he will announce his decision."

FOR A TOUR OF THE WORLD.

William Jennings Bryan and Family Leave Tomorrow for Japan for a Trip of a Year.

A recent press dispatch contains the following: Mr. and Mrs. William Jennings Bryan, accompanied by their son and daughter, William and Grace, will leave tomorrow for their tour of the world. They will sail from San Francisco for Japan, September 26, stopping at Honolulu for a day or two. They will spend some time in the Philippines, visit Australia and New Zealand and reach India in the winter. They will spend next summer in the large cities of Europe. Mr. Bryan expects to be gone not less than a year.

Judge John Stansberry, formerly well known in this section as United States attorney in business pertaining to Indian depredation claims, made Socorro friends a brief call Monday. Since leaving here three years ago Judge Stansberry has traveled over several of the extreme western and northwestern states.

Pay Your Poll Tax.

Conrado A. Baca, clerk of the board of education, asks the Chieftain to say that the latest date for the payment of poll tax is October 1, and that collection will be enforced against all who are delinquent after that date.

Episcopal Services.

Reverend Darling will conduct services at Epiphany church tomorrow morning and evening at the usual hours. All are cordially invited to attend.

NEW MEXICO BAR ASSOCIATION.

Att'y Jas. G. Fitch Elected Vice-President. Judge Freeman Reads an Interesting Paper.

The nineteenth annual session of the New Mexico Bar association convened in Albuquerque Tuesday evening.

Among the officers elected by the association for the ensuing year was attorney Jas. G. Fitch of this city as vice-president from the third judicial district.

Hon. A. A. Freeman of Carlsbad read an interesting paper of which the Albuquerque Citizen says: "Hon. A. A. Freeman, of Carlsbad, read a paper on 'The Bench and Bar: Their Relations to Each Other and to the Public.' The paper was of great interest to the association and highly entertaining. Upon motion the address was ordered printed and distributed by the secretary to all members of the profession in New Mexico."

At the banquet Wednesday evening, Mr. Fitch was designated to toast "The Bar" and Judge Freeman "The Ladies."
